Web 2.0 is here and it's come with exciting bold colors, rounded corners, mirror reflection images and many other special effects to catch the attention of site visitors. Unfortunately most of us don't have the graphics design software or knowledge to do many of these things and many of the software tools being sold will not work on Macs. That's why I've created this ebook of free online tools that will work on both PCs and Macs.

Because I do not personally own any of the tool links contained in this ebook I can not guarantee that they will stay around forever or that they will always be free. However, at the time of this writing all these tools worked and were available to everyone at no cost.

Also, if you already own and use a graphics package or some other software tool that does what any of these free tools do you may notice that you have more flexibility and choice in your creations. And you should since you paid for it. But if you are not currently capable of creating many of the new Web 2.0 effects you'll be pleasantly surprised at how well these free tools work and with the creations you can make.
